Dear Sirs:-

I am starting a collection of old United States coins, and I wonder if you could give me some data to help a beginner and kindly give me information as to coin periodicals.

Respectfully,

William P. McGrory,

Dear Sir:

In reply to your letter stating you are desirous of collecting United States coins, I would suggest that you join one or both of the two societies in this country- namely, The American Numismatic Society, and The American Numismatic Association.

Our organization does not publish a magazine, but has a large library and museum at the disposal of members.. It also publishes monographs, which are sent free to members . The cost of these monographs yearly, are far in excess of the annual dues of five dollars.

The " Association " publishes a magazine. Information about this, is on enclosed slip. I am also enclosing a list of Coin Dealers.

Very truly yours,
